Oracle India Pvt Ltd
I use GeeksForGeeks website regularly to help me with various concepts. I came through this course and decided to enroll in the program. The content is very useful and I haven't found any other website which covers topics as well as this course. The material given on OS and DBMS was especially helpful for me. Sandeep Sir teaching method is quite efficient and I could grasp even the most difficult concepts with ease. Coding tips are handy for placement preparation. I have GFG and this course to thank for the opportunity I got to work with Oracle India Pvt Ltd.

Divya Vishwakarma
TCS, Capgemini
I came to know about the GeeksForGeeks' placement preparation course through the email and decided to enroll in it. I must say that the course is really good for a beginner and has various advantages. It improved my competitive coding skills as well as Algorithm related problem-solving skills. Due to this course, I was able to secure opportunities to work with TCS and Capgemini.

INSTAGRAM
I joined GeeksforGeeks, especially for this course. Geeks classes have helped me to crack the placement at Instagram. I used to practice a lot of questions that were discussed in the class. Sandeep Sir and Shashi Sir were amazing and possessed a great knowledge of data structures and algorithms.

Sahil Kaushik
Placed in MAQ Softwares and PrepBytes
This course is a complete package for Interview Preparation. One just needs to follow this course to crack any interview. You can prepare for theory subjects like system design, aptitude, coding languages and data structures from this single course. The course is well planned and the doubt platform is prompt. I strongly recommend this course.
